1. ASSESSMENT APPEALS BOARDS 1 AND 2 - Files 990368 and 990369

Pursuant to Ordinance No. 393-98, approved December 24, 1998, legislation establishing this Board was amended to increase the number of Assessment Appeals Boards from one to two, to increase the number of Assessment Appeals Board Members, to establish eligibility requirements for members, to establish criteria for selection of Assessment Appeals Board Panels and Hearing Officers, to establish guidelines for joint meetings of the Assessment Appeals Board, and to make nonsubstantive clarifying revisions. (See Administrative Code Sections 2B.1 through 2B.8 and 2B.10 through 2B.14)

The duty of both Assessment Appeals Boards is to equalize the valuation of the taxable property within the City and County for the purposes of taxation in the manner and subject to the limitations contained in Article XIII of the California State Constitution.

Membership for each Assessment Appeals Board has been increased by two, regular members thereby creating two vacancies each on Assessment Appeals Board 1 and 2 for a total of five regular members on each Board.

Persons eligible for appointment must meet the eligibility criteria set forth in Section 1624.05 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. The term for these seats is three years, expiring at 12:01 a.m. on the first Monday in September of the third year (September 2, 2002).

The Rules Committee may be considering appointments for the Assessment Appeals Board at its meeting of March 25, 1999, however, this date is subject to change. All applicants will be notified of the time and date of the meeting.

2. BICYCLE ADVISORY COMMITTEE - File 990364

Succeeding Daniel Seltzer (Seat 4, must represent a bicycle organization), resigned, for unexpired portion of three year term ending December 31, 1999.

Consists of eleven members appointed by the Board comprised of the following: one member from the bicycle industry; three members from bicycle organizations, two members from environmental organizations, and five members who are at-large bicyclists.

3. CHILDREN AND FAMILIES FIRST TRUST FUND AND COMMISSION - File 990361

On November 3, 1998, the citizens of the State of California enacted The California Children and Families First Act of 1998 ("the Act"). The purpose of the Act is to promote, support and improve the early development of children from the prenatal state to five years of age in each county. This purpose shall be accomplished through the establishment, institution, and coordination of appropriate standards, resources, and integrated and comprehensive programs emphasizing community awareness, education, nurturing, child care, social services, health care and research.

Pursuant to "the Act", Board of Supervisors' Ordinance 409-98, approved December 24, 1998, established the Children and Families First Trust Fund and Commission to meet the goals and objectives of and be in full compliance with all of the provisions of "the Act".

The Commission consists of nine members, comprised of the following: One shall be the Director of Public Health or designee; one shall be the General Manager of the Department of Human Services or designee; one shall be a member of the Board of Supervisors; one shall be the Director of the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families or designee; and five shall represent one or more of the following: children services, public health services; behavioral health services, social services and tobacco and other substance abuse prevention and treatment services; recipients of project services included in the county strategic plan; educators specializing in early childhood development; representatives of a local child care resource or referral agency, the Child Care Planning and Advisory Council or another local child care coordinating group; representatives of a local organization for prevention or early intervention for families at risk; representatives of community-based organizations that have the goal of promoting and nurturing early childhood development; representatives of local school districts; and representatives of local medical, pediatric, or obstetric associations or societies.

The Commission shall by May 1, 2000, adopt an adequate and complete San Francisco Strategic Plan for the support and improvement of early childhood development. On or before October 15th of each year, the Commission shall prepare and adopt an audit and issue a written report on the implementation and performance of its functions during the preceding fiscal year. The Commission shall establish no less than one advisory committee, with one advisory committee being comprised of members nominated by the Starting Points Initiative Early Childhood Interagency Council, which will provide technical and professional expertise and support for any purpose that will be beneficial in accomplishing the purposes of "the Act". The Commission shall expend the funds in the San Francisco Children and Families First Trust Fund, only for the purposes authorized by "the Act" and the enabling legislation in accordance with the Strategic Plan approved by the Commission.

The Rules Committee may be considering appointments for this Commission at its meeting of March 25, 1999, however, this date is subject to change. All applicants will be notified of the time and date of the meeting.

4. SUNSHINE ORDINANCE TASK FORCE - File 990329

Pursuant to Ordinance No. 387-98, membership on this Task Force increased from eleven to thirteen members. Consequently, there are two vacancies. One member shall be a journalist from the minority press or electronic media and one member shall be a member of the public who has demonstrated interest in or has experience in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government. (See Administrative Code Section 67.30).

The Task Force consists of thirteen members, comprised of the following: two appointed from names submitted by local chapter of Society of Professional Journalists, one an attorney and one a local journalist; one member appointed from the press or electronic media who has an interest in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government; one member appointed from names submitted by local chapter of League of Women Voters; one a journalist from the press or electronic media; six members of the public who have demonstrated interest in or have experience in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government; two members of the public experienced in consumer advocacy. At all times, the Task Force shall include at least one member who shall be a member of the public who is disabled and who has demonstrated interest in citizen access and participation in local government. The Mayor or his/her designee, and the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors and his/her designee serve as non-voting members. The City Attorney shall serve as legal advisor to the Task Force.

ETHICS COMMISSION – File No. 012088

The Ethics Commission is convened pursuant to Charter Section 15.100.

The Ethics Commission shall consist of five members who shall serve six-year terms. The Board of Supervisors shall appoint one member of the Commission. The member appointed by the Board of Supervisors shall be broadly representative of the general public.

Members of the Ethics Commission shall serve without compensation. Members of the Commission shall be officers of the City and County, and may be removed by the appointing authority only pursuant to Section 15.105. No person may serve more than one six-year term as a member of the Commission, provided that persons appointed to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term with less than three years remaining or appointed to an initial term of three or fewer years shall be eligible to be appointed to one additional six-year term. Any term served before the effective date of this Section shall not count toward a member's term limit. Any person who completes a term as a Commissioner shall be eligible for reappointment six years after the expiration of his or her term.

During his or her tenure, a member of the Commission may not: hold any other public office or employment with the City, state or federal government, with a district governmental body, with the governing body of any political party, with any City, district, state or federal official, or with a member of the governing body of any political party; participate in, contribute to, solicit contributions to, publicly endorse or urge the endorsement of a campaign supporting or opposing a candidate for City, district, state or federal office appearing on the ballot in San Francisco, the governing body of any political party appearing on the ballot in San Francisco, a City, regional or state ballot measure appearing on the ballot in San Francisco, or a City official seeking any elective office; be an officer, director or employee of or hold a policymaking position in an organization that makes political endorsements regarding candidates or ballot measures appearing on the ballot in San Francisco; be a registered lobbyist or campaign consultant as defined under the City's lobbyist or campaign consultant ordinances; or employ or be employed by, or receive any gifts or other compensation from, a person required to register as a lobbyist or campaign consultant under the City's lobbyist or campaign consultant ordinances, a person who employs someone required to register as a lobbyist or campaign consultant under the City's lobbyist or campaign consultant ordinances, or a person who is employed by or holds office in an organization that makes political endorsements regarding candidates or ballot measures appearing on the ballot in San Francisco.

If a person appointed to the Ethics Commission is, at the time of appointment, an officer, director or employee of or holds a policymaking position in an organization described herein, that person shall be eligible to serve on the Ethics Commission only if he or she resigns from his or her office or employment with that organization within thirty days of appointment.

Vacant seat, new position, seat 1, must be a representative of the general public, for a new five-year term ending February 1, 2008.

PLANNING COMMISSION

The mission of the City Planning Department is to guide the orderly and prudent use of land, in both the natural and built environment, with the purpose of improving the quality of life and embracing the diverse perspectives of those who live in, work in, and visit San Francisco.

The Planning Commission consists of seven members, comprised of four members nominated by the Mayor and three members nominated by the President of the Board of Supervisors.

Each nomination of the Mayor and the President of the Board of Supervisors is subject to approval by the Board of Supervisors. If the Board fails to act on the nomination within 60 days of the date the nomination is transmitted to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, the nominee shall be deemed approved.

In order to stagger the terms, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors shall determine by lot which two of the four Mayoral appointees shall serve an initial two-year term, and which one of the three appointees of the President of the Board of Supervisors shall serve an initial two year term. The remaining appointees shall serve four-year terms. All subsequent terms shall be four years.

The appointees of both the Mayor and the President of the Board of Supervisors shall take office at 12 o'clock noon on the first day of July 2002.
